The D[illegible] Lock in Congress.

[illegible] June 26—The dead lock in Congress [illegible] assume prominence with Washington [illegible] The Tribune's correspondent [illegible] compromise is now likely and that [illegible] will be without funds after July [illegible] that the mails will be stop[illegible] that [illegible] legislative judicial and executive [illegible] be discontinued and the whole gov[illegible] is just now very good It does not seem [illegible] the bills can be got through by June [illegible] they fail there is nothing to do [illegible] up shop so far as the government is con[illegible]

[illegible] special says The failure of the con[illegible] much anxiety Randall [illegible] to St. Louis, and it is believed his pres[illegible] necessary for the success of the appro[illegible] bills. Another reason for Randall remain[illegible] Washington is said to be the position into [illegible] drifted with the election of Say[illegible] pro. tem. There was a plan by [illegible] to be made Speaker until the [illegible], but it came to Holman's knowledge that some of the Southern men were intending to run Hancock of Texas In that case there was a purpose on the Republican side to nominate Banks and he would have been elected Holman struck his own name out of the resolution that had been prepared and inserted Sayler and made a modification which will prevent Cox from getting into the chair again without a new election In this state of affairs Randall found the House too rapidly slipping away from him and gave up his trip to St Louis where he is a delegate Randall was very glad to find an excuse to stay in Washington since he expected Wallace to contest the Pennsylvania delegation and Randall would by remaining in Washington, be able to render the reason for his defeat Altogether the convention the Speakership and the appropriation bills are in a pretty muddle

The Sun says It is understood that if the post office and legislative appropriation bills are not agreed upon by Saturday the President will promulgate an executive order reciting the acts of Congress making it a penal offense for any executive officer to incur expense not provided by law thereby stopping the wheels of Government Since so much fault has been found with the leaders of Congress for increasing their pay, the Democratic leaders in the House are confident that the public will not [illegible] the that portion of Congress for reducing public expenses The attorney general has been requested to give the subject his careful attention, so that whatever may be done by the President may be strictly under the law It was ascertained to night that the first bill that must be operative by the 1st of July in order to prevent the dead lock so much dreaded is the executive, judicial and legislative appropriation bill in which provision is made for the pay of the first comptroller and deputy comptrollers and clerks in the comptroller's [illegible] without authority from the head of the comptroller's bureau If all the other appropriation bills were passed, there could not be one cent drawn from the treasury He is by law made the guardian of the treasury and the appropriations for carrying on the first comptroller's bureau are in the legislative bill.

[illegible] to Remedy the Dead-lock Trouble.

The Herald's Washington special thinks the appropriation bill troubles will be met by the Democrats allowing the present year's appropriations to be extended for a month or so [illegible] to Repeal the Resumption Bill.

A Times Washington special says the inflationists in the House will attempt the repeal of the resumption act to day Neale has a bill for repeal of which he has given previous notice which he will call up and put upon its passage Sayler is in the chair to recognize Neale and give such aid as he can to secure the passage of the bill Neale is from Allen's district in Ohio and makes this effort at this time to help that gentleman's chances at St. Louis. The passage of Neale's bill would enable Allen's friends to make a fight for a stronger declaration in the platform in favor of soft money than a simple demand for a repeal of the resumption act

Morrill will not Accept the Treasury.

Washington June 26.—Morrill and the President had a long interview to-day It is now thought he will not accept the Treasury as his services are more valuable at the present juncture in the Senate

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Abetting the War Party.

London, June 26—A Vienna dispatch asserts that the Russian [illegible] at Belgrade is privately abetting the war party. England is using her influence to restrain Prince Milan, who however declares it is now too late to resist the tide of events, and his only [illegible] of war.

Liverpool, June 26, 2:30 P M—Receipts of wheat for the past week from Atlantic ports, 31 000 qrs from Pacific ports, 24,200 qrs, and from other sources, 5,850 qrs. The receipts of corn for the week were 50 600

Warlike Ru[illegible].

London, June 26—A dispatch from Belgrade to the Reuter Telegram Company states warlike rumors continue but they are not authenticated. The rumors appear to be [illegible] on the announcement of the departure of the said telegraph, and the post and medical staff for the frontier

English Cabinet Divid[illegible] on the Eastern Qu[illegible].

Liverpool, June 26—The Post's London correspondent says he hears from trustworthy source that serious differences exist in the Cabinet on the [illegible] question and intimates the present policy is Disraeli's, and not Lord Derby's. The correspondent says the [illegible] why such an [illegible] silence has been observed in Parliament on the policy of the government on this question is that a debate would make manifest those differences which could not fail to prove very prejudicial to the government Lord Derby and Sir Stafford Northcote Chancellor of [illegible] on the one hand, and the Premier, Mr Hunt, First Lord of the Admiralty and the Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary of State for India on the other, are widely at variance on the [illegible] serious points of the amount of support to be awarded Turkey by England in event of a crisis. Every one is hoping for the best; but nobody's eyes can be closed at the alarming resemblance the present situation bears to that immediately preceding the Crimean war. If we do not this time drift into hostilities it certainly will not be owing to to the unity and energy in the cause of peace of Disraeli's government. It is proper to state that the Post is a [illegible] liberal journal

Lord Derby on the Eastern Question.

In the House of Lords this evening Lord Derby in reply to a question by Lord Delaware said undoubtedly affairs were critical in Servia, in the sense that great military preparations were making The militia reserves had been called out and every thing prepared for the immediate commencement of the campaign Whether it was Servia's intention to make war, was beyond his province. Of course it was upon those who made preparations to say whether the [illegible] of their surroundings [illegible] such [illegible] for the purp[illegible] of de[illegible]. This was all the information he could give.

Di[illegible] to D[illegible] the Extradi[illegible] Tr[illegible].

During the session of the House of Commons this afternoon, Marquis of Hartington asked Disraeli whether he would name a day to discuss Sir Wm Thornton's motion for the production of the extradition papers Disraeli in reply, said he was unable to lay the complete papers before the House, and deferred the debate as Lord Derby's answer to Secretary Fish's last note, though written, had not been dispatched.

Mr Worcester in accordance with notice he had given on Saturday last, asked Disraeli whether he could give any information as to the truth of the statement published in the Daily News Constantinople letter of the cruelties of the Turks in Bulgaria

Disraeli said the government had no information justifying the statements At the commencement of the troubles in Bulgaria, outrages were committed and villages burned by Bashi Bazouks and Circassians regardless of race or religion and the war was conducted with great ferocity At that time there were no regular troops in Bulgaria and the inhabitants were compelled to defend themselves Sir Henry Geo. Elliott English ambassador at Constantinople, was instructed in May last to call the attention of the Turkish government to the state of affairs, and he induced Turkey to send troops into Bulgaria, when the trouble speedily ceased

Balloting Whether to Strike or Not.

London, June 26—The question whether the Durham colliers would submit to a reduction of wages or strike was decided by ballot at a meeting of men at Durham on Saturday Twenty thousand of the miners favored arbitration while 11 000 favored a strike The secretary of the Miners Association has consequently proposed an arbitration and it is accepted

Austria to be Neutral in Case of War.

London, June 26—Special dispatches to the Pall Mall Gazette say Austria is taking precautions for the maintenance of a strict neutrality in the event of a conflict between Servia and Turkey It is announced on apparently good authority that Montenegro will not participate in Servia's movement On the contrary Prince Milan's assumption of the leadership of the Slavonian revolt is reported to have excited the jealousy of the Prince of Montenegro Roumania continues strictly neutral

Exhibition of Hygiene.

Brussels June 26—An exhibition of hygiene in this city was opened to day by their majesties the King and Queen To-night the King will give a grand banquet in honor of the opening The building for this exhibition which was erected in the park comprises seven large halls and one smaller one England France Germany Austria Russia and Belgium have one large hall each Italy, Holland and Switzerland occupy one together Sweden and Denmark occupy a smaller hall

ST. LOUIS CONVENTION.

St Louis June 26—The friends of Hendricks are feeling more confident this morning than yesterday Gen Manson who is working very judiciously for Indiana's favorite has assurances of support from States not before counted on and after the first ballot it is expected he will make decided gains A Hendricks band is now parading the streets much to the gratification of crowds of people Meanwhile the anti Tilden leaders who are seeking for somebody strong enough to carry Ohio Indiana and New York are working with great energy A conference was held in parlor 4 under two of the Southern Hotel last night which was attended by representatives from the different delegations opposed to Tilden Speeches were made by Roger A Pryor John Kelly and others which were received with a good deal of enthusiasm The object of the meeting was to see what they can count on They report that they are strong enough to defeat Tilden They indicated no choice This meeting has been responded to to day by work on the part of Tilden's friends that will count in the convention The delegations of Mississippi and Wisconsin held meetings and agreed to cast the vote of each delegation solid for Tilden This is a decidedly important gain The same kind of work is being done with other delegations and the Tilden managers express the greatest confidence of ultimate success in spite of the efforts of Tammany It is now believed the two-thirds rule will stand None of the friends of prominent candidates seem to have courage to attack it If it does stand said a delegate, Tilden is beaten

The New York Greenback Delegation Claim Recognition.

The following paper was laid before the national committee this forenoon by the greenback delegation from New York

St Louis June 24 1876

To the Democratic National Convention Gentlemen—The delegation appointed by the Democratic State Convention held at New York City on the first of June to represent the State of New York in the St. Louis Presidential Convention of 27th instant respectfully represent to your committee that they are in attendance at this city for the purpose of discharging the duties imposed upon them by their Democratic constituents that they are informed that another delegation headed by Hon Francis Kernan and appointed at the state convention held in Utica is also in attendance claiming to represent New York This delegation therefore respectfully suggest to your committee and make the formal request that the seats in the convention be awarded by your committee to the State of New York shall be left entirely vacant and unoccupied and both delegations absolutely excluded from the use thereof until such time as the convention itself can report by its own committee on credentials who are entitled to the same the sole desire and demand of this delegation being that both delegations be placed on the same and equal footing at the organization of the Presidential convention, and that your committee shall do no act whereby either delegation shall be placed in a prejudicial or disadvantageous position before the convention and the public in advance of a decision upon the merits of the New York contest

GIDEON TUCKER Chairman

H. D McNAUGHTON, Secretary

Address of the Independents.

The Independents of the United States publish an address in the Evening Dispatch advocating a compromise on the finance question They favor a Southern man for Vice President and the postponement of the financial plank in the platform until the nomination Mr Jennet represents the Peter Cooper ticket and states with authority that the Peter Cooper ticket will be withdrawn if the Democrats favor greenbacks.

The Chinese Question in the St. Louis Convention.

St Louis June 26—The politicians of the Pacific coast having failed to secure such recognition of the Chinese question in the Cincinnati platform as they hoped have come to St Louis, and are preparing their case before the Democratic convention The delegates from California, Nevada and Oregon would like to have the convention commit itself to a policy of non immigration of Mongolians and would prefer a declaration in favor of limiting

The struggle between Tilden and Tammany will inevitably result in the destruction of one or the other John Kelly figured out the first ballot in this way Tilden 156 Hendricks 128 Hancock 55 Allen, 22, Parker 9 Bayard 3 but his figures are too favorable to Hendricks and too hostile to Tilden

Organization of State Delegations.

St Louis, June 26—Several State delegations met and organized this morning among them the following

Pennsylvania, Wm A Wallace chairman The question of casting the vote was discussed but no definite action was taken The majority, however seem to favor carrying out the instructions of their State convention

California, J P Hagar, chairman This delegation will move for an emphatic expression on the Chinese question They say they can carry the whole Pacific Slope for the Democrats if they can get from the convention an acknowledgement that their people are right on this subject No action has been taken regarding how this delegation will vote but it is understood that the majority are for Tilden The vote will probably be cast as a unit.

North Carolina, Col. W D Bortch, chairman No action as to the vote of this state

Oregon, Gen M V Brown chairman This delegation stand on the same ground as California on the Chinese question

Alabama—G B Whitten, chairman This delegation is divided as to their vote, and have decided to vote as they please They refuse to give any definite information as to their preference

Indiana, John T Will[illegible] chairman

Georgia, James Smith, chairman

The Louisiana delegation have not all arrived but those here have organized by electing Gov R C Wickliffe chairman They express themselves in favor of Tilden The Maine delegation is complete and may be regarded as solid for Tilden The Maryland delegation have a strong preference for Bayard They are willing to vote for any man who can carry the election The North Carolina delegation favor no particular man and will support the man who seems to be able to carry the party to victory This feeling is also entertained by most of the Southern delegations

At the meeting of the New York delegation this evening a formal test vote was taken which resulted Tilden 52, Seymour 7, Hendricks 7 Church, Hoffman Hancock, Bayard, [illegible] A resolution was then offered, as follows

Resolved That the New York delegation cast their vote as a unit until a majority vote of reconsider[illegible] shall be agreed upon

The resolution [illegible]

The Indiana del[illegible] are firm but are not [illegible] The Illinois delegation held a session this afternoon and discussed the financial questions of the time The delegation seemed about equally divided between hard and soft money but settled in the conviction a compromise will be necessary, if anything is said in the platform on the money question Gen John McClellan who was selected for the committee on resolutions expressed himself in favor of a repeal of the resumption act but is in favor also of specie payment. There is likely to be a fierce fight on the money question as prominent greenback men like Voorhees of Indiana, and Ewing of Ohio have been appointed on the committee of resolutions. In the Ohio delegation there was a protracted fight which resulted in the selection of the Hon Thos Ewing by 23 votes This question is so much feared that a number of delegates are urging the propriety of saying nothing on the money question in the platform

Of the Territories only Colorado will be permitted to participate in the proceedings of the convention Gen George Smith president. An informal vote showed the preferences of the delegation as follows Tilden 6 Davis 3 Hancock 1 The Hancock man and one Davis man will no doubt go to Tilden on 2d or 3d ballot Kansas then C W Blair chairman It was the unanimous opinion of the delegates that the two-thirds rule should be adhered to No action was taken to indicate the preferences of the delegation, but it is known to be in favor of soft money

Nevada—A C. Ellis chairman The delegation will vote as a unit and lean strongly toward Tilden

Michigan—Wm L Webber chairman The meeting was addressed by Schell Belmont and others in opposition to Tilden The delegation stands 17 for Tilden 5 for Hendricks but 3 of the latter will probably change to Tilden

Mississippi—Gen E C Walthall chairman A resolution was adopted pledging the delegation to vote as a unit for Tilden as long as there was any show of his being elected

New Hampshire—G H Putman chairman The delegates stand nine for Tilden and one for Thurman

Maine—Samuel J Anderson chairman On the first ballot the vote of the delegation will be cast solid for Tilden

Kentucky—W P C Breckinridge chairman A resolution was adopted instructing the delegates to present to the convention the resolutions passed by the Kentucky State convention calling for a repeal of the resumption act but favoring a return to specie payment as soon as possible

A band from Indiana, accompanied by several prominent members of that delegation serenaded several State headquarters during this morning At the New York headquarters Judge Buskirk from Indiana made a short address to the New Yorkers urging harmony of feeling among Democrats and assuring the New York delegation they would support as the standard bearer of the Democracy whoever should be nominated

Francis Kernan Senator from New York made a brief response counseling harmony and and assuring Indiana that New York would meet them in the same spirit as avowed by the gentleman who had addressed them and if it turns out that the convention should designate [illegible] Hendricks as the strongest man with whom to win success New York will give him a hearty support

Mr. Tilden's Strength.

St Louis June 26—There is no organized effort here for any candidate except Tilden The audacity of his supporters sweeps everything before it and makes the mention of other names seem puerile This is more prominently so than in the case of Blaine's support at Cincinnati and his friends claim almost everything for him his nomination on the second ballot with the requisite two thirds which rule will be adhered to It is true that important delegations such as Wisconsin Michigan and North Carolina have promised solid or nearly solid votes for Tilden but after all the result will depend on the action of the Southern delegations They are mostly looking on up to this time their views being well expressed by Gov Walker of Virginia Gen Walker said the delegations were in true union with the people of the North They had come to St Louis with a firm determination to ascertain what man the North preferred as their standard bearer for 1876 and would join in support of that man

John Morrissey has circulated industriously among the delegations He was invited before the Louisiana delegation this evening and addressed them in behalf of Tilden

The count for Tilden on the first ballot now exceeds 400 The Tammany leaders are so much discouraged as to be about ready to give up the contest.

St Louis June 26—The hopes of the opponents of Tilden now center around Pennsylvania This State has resolved to vote solid for Hancock and to continue to vote for him with no second choice behind This action they think will draw to their support enough states on the second ballot to prevent the nomination of Tilden and then Wm Allen of Ohio being out of the way the vote of that State would be added to the Hancock column to be followed later by Hendricks supporters This is their plan If it succeed they would be able to give the second place to Hon Thos Ewing The friends of Hendricks evidently see the nature of the situation and are making efforts to prevent a two thirds vote for Tilden That is the only hope to the opponents of the New York candidate

The Very Latest.

At this hour it looks as if Tilden would sweep the field At the meeting of the national committee Henry Watterson editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, was selected as temporary chairman of the convention This was the first victory for Tilden At the meeting of the editors of the German Democratic papers and Independents this evening Charles Reitein of Ohio was made chairman and Col Dingley of New York secretary The resolutions reported by Judge Sterburg were adopted the first of which declares that partisan war should cease, and that the old fraternal feeling of the people be restored and that the corruptionists of the public service should be vigorously prosecuted The second declares that according to the old Democratic doctrine, gold and silver is the only money known to the Constitution of the United States that the legal tender notes are no money but constitute a debt long ago due, and that the whole financial policy of the Federal government should be so directed as to restore specie payment. The third resolution says the maintenance of public schools by State authority should be continued in all efficiency free from sectarian control, and that the proposed transfer of the schools to Federal rule by a constitutional amendment meets with their disapproval The fifth resolution declares that the exposures of the frauds and peculations of the present administration have written with lines of livid fire on the country the great duty of the hour to cleanse the public service in all its branches of the miscreants who void of virtue themselves have presumed that the sense of morality is dead in the people Let us show them that this nation has not forgotten that it had a Washington The sixth resolution demands the organization of the public service in all its branches. Proclamation by the President.

Washington, June 26—The following proclamation was issued to-day by the President The Centennial anniversary of the day on which the people of the United States declared their right to a separate and equal station among the powers of the earth seems to demand exceptional observance The founders of the government at its birth, and its feebleness invoked the blessings of Divine Providence and thirteen colonies and three millions of people have expanded into a nation of strength and numbers commanding the position which then was [illegible], and for which fervent prayers were then offered It seems fitting that on the occurrence of the hundredth anniversary of our existence as a nation, grateful acknowledgments should be made to Almighty God for the protection vouchsafed to our beloved country I therefore invite the good people of the United States, on the approaching 4th day of July in addition to the usual observances with which they are accustomed to greet the return of the day, further in such manner and at such time as in their respective localities and religious parties may be most convenient, to mark its recurrence by some public religious and devout thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings which have been bestowed upon us as a nation during a century of our existence, and humbly to invoke the continuance of His favor of His protection. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed Done at the city of Washington this 26th day of June A D 1876 and of the Independence of the United States of America the 100th

An accident occurred here this forenoon, about 11 o'clock which may prove fatal in its results, to Mr Wald of the firm of W[illegible] & Wald hardware dealers A few days since they removed from their old place of business to a better location in a new building on Front street. It seems that the shelving upon which they had placed a large quantity of hardware was not sufficiently fastened to the wall, through some mistake, the carpenters forgetting to use other than ordinary means in securing it. The shelving along one side of the building—near 20 feet in height, and about 40 feet in length—fell without the slightest warning. TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1876.

HOIST WITH THEIR OWN PETARD.

In order to prevent unauthorized expenditures of the public money, the present House of Representatives enacted a bill making it in general terms a penal offense for any officer of the government to run the government in debt by having work done for the payment of which no appropriations had been made. It being probable that the fiscal year will expire without the appropriation bills being passed by Congress, the President has allowed it to be understood that he will not transgress the law above alluded to. It is reported that he will, in obedience thereto, issue an executive order reciting the law and closing all government offices.

There are only four more days, counting this, in which the differences between the House and Senate must be settled, or, if the President adheres to his reported intention, as he will no doubt do, the whole administration of the government, including the transmission of the mails, and the holding of United States courts [illegible] cease. What the House will, or [illegible] do, cannot be surmised. It is possi[illegible] [illegible] the course only of the wise and the prudent, and the Democratic majority in the House does not belong to that class. It has been intimated that the House will continue the appropriations of the last year over to the coming year for a month or two. But such a course [illegible] be to only put off the trouble for a brief space; the final settlement and agreement would be no nearer, or easier [illegible] before.

[illegible] the Senate is inconceivably obstinate and contrary, their action in nonconcurring in the reductions made by the House appropriation committee is in[illegible] by a conviction that the House [illegible] has been fatally injudicious, [illegible] the interests of the nation both [illegible] and abroad would be materially [illegible] by making the proposed reductions. In this view the Senate is sustained, more or less warmly, by the press of the country generally. Of course the Democratic papers are disposed to defend and [illegible] the action of the Democratic [illegible]. Scarcely anything else could be expected; but they do it feebly. While [illegible] well that some extravagant salaries should be reduced, it is impossible [illegible] the justice of cutting down the [illegible] salaries of hard-working clerks in [illegible] departments, and at the same time increasing the amount of labor required of them. In fact, the policy of the Democrats of the House is that of the penny-[illegible] and pound-foolish. Their management of the affairs of the country has [illegible] without wisdom and without tact. [illegible] have blundered everywhere it has [illegible] possible to blunder, from the time Wood brought up the Louisiana business to this present dead-lock. Clymer, Knott and Randall have distin[illegible] themselves for want of discretion [illegible] common prudence, if not common

[illegible] country will require stronger evidence of the fitness of the Democracy to [illegible] the reins of power than has yet [illegible] before it will entrust the ad[illegible] of government to them. The [illegible] Lewis must be a different [illegible] from any in Congress—and [illegible] of a feather flock together—or [illegible] Wheeler will get a bigger majority [illegible] poor Greeley was beaten

CROOKED WINE.

[illegible] detectives are in pursuit of the [illegible] of bogus champagne, and [illegible] upon a particularly [illegible] party of game ahead. The [illegible] contains an ad[illegible] of a large number of [illegible] in the manufacture [illegible] counterfeit champagne, and [illegible] to follow soon. The [illegible] parties arrested [illegible] with counterfeiting the [illegible] G. H. Mumm & Co.'s [illegible] bottling the spurious [illegible] as the genuine [illegible] are commenced [illegible] violation of the statute of [illegible] the act charged to be [illegible].

[illegible] is that of the [illegible] United States three [illegible] here. The profits [illegible] are [illegible]. Their stuff is set forth [illegible] in the suits [illegible] day, [illegible] of sauterne or [illegible] wine, costing about twenty [illegible]. The so called champagne, [illegible] of known brands, is gener[illegible] all receipts above $6 or $8 [illegible]. The price of imported [illegible] from $20 to $35 per case. [illegible] had a [illegible] ward. The detective em[illegible] that the sauterne or Califor[illegible] was taken there in casks, doctored [illegible] and labeled with a coun[illegible] Mumm & Co.'s label and sent [illegible]

[illegible] the recorder shows that [illegible] certain junk dealers gave [illegible] that Mumm & Co.'s [illegible] were worth more than fire[illegible] a detective bearing of this followed [illegible] box to its destination. Even the [illegible] king was bought by the junkman. [illegible] empty case and the straw were sent into [illegible] wine factory, the bottles filled with [illegible], and marked with the counterfeit [illegible]. The twine was stained, the tin foil [illegible] and the case, with a dozen others, put [illegible] after a scout had reported [illegible] clear. Soon after it was, with the [illegible] left in a cellar. A grocer's wagon then [illegible] and took up all the cases. In two [illegible] from the time it was packed it was in [illegible] of one of the complainants, who had [illegible] it as evidence, paying $22 for what had probably cost $6. The grocer, of course, [illegible] all guilty knowledge, but could not [illegible]ply when asked why he sent his wagon in [illegible] a surreptitious manner for well known brands of wine.

[illegible] the illicit traffic is not stopped the American market for pure champagne will be abolished, and the revenue to the government on nearly 200,000 [illegible] of wine per annum completely lost.

A merchant in this city dealing largely in wines expresses the opinion that far more than half the wines used here, especially of the higher priced classes, is bogus, and says that the champagnes and sherries which are pronounced by connoisseurs to be of the very finest are frequently nothing but cheap liquors doctored up and sent out in counterfeit labels.

A disagreement in the British Cabinet on the Eastern question is reported to exist. It is said that Disraeli, the Premier, and Lord Darby, the Secretary of foreign affairs hold different views as to what amount of support should be given by England to Turkey. It is not surprising that this disagreement should [illegible] Disraeli is bold and daring, and oriental by race and temperament; while Lord Darby is cautious, cold and unsympathetic. His father, the late Earl, who was called the Hotspur of the House of Commons, would have been much more likely to back up the brilliant, audacious Premier. What the result of the disagreement is likely to be has not yet been intimated; but at most it would hardly be more than the resignation of Lord Derby of his present position.

A desperate effort will be made at St. Louis to defeat Tilden. The soft money men will spare no efforts against him. Hendricks' prospects seem to be growing brighter, while Parker and Bayard attract some notice. The soft money men offer to withdraw Mr. Cooper in case a soft money man is nominated, and the Pacific coast delegation promise the Pacific slope vote to the nominee, provided an anti-Chinese plank is inserted in the platform.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

PORTLAND, June 21, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In the last report of the State Treasurer, made in September, 1874, is the following list of outstanding warrants, all of which are still outstanding and unpaid:

On General fund	$ 29,624 81
Incidental fund	9,761 35
Legislative fund	1,004 92
Penitentiary building fund	4,790 30
Penitentiary fund	72,158 52
Insane asylum fund	131,155 30
Convict fund	14,237 03
Printing fund	12,130 86
Agricultural college fund	8,438 31
Indigent fund	2,021 41
Fugitive fund	2,143 39
Total am't outstanding warrants	$287,459 17

None of these warrants have been paid. The provision of the State constitution regarding their payment is as follows:

"Section 6. Whenever the expenses of any fiscal year shall exceed the income, the legislative assembly shall provide for levying a tax for the ensuing fiscal year, sufficient with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency as well as the estimated expense of the ensuing fiscal year."

This duty will devolve upon the legislature to assemble in September of this year. These warrants have been drawing 10 per cent. interest since their issue, dating from 1872 to 1874. A careful estimate of the interest which will be due on these warrants on the 1st of April next makes the amount about $98,000, which added to the principal, will make the total amount due 1st of April next, $385,205 23. The 1st of April is as soon as this deficiency can be paid, on an average, if the legislature takes earliest action. If by act passed early in the session the county courts of the several counties are directed to make specified levy this year, the tax would be paid into the State treasury in time to pay the debt, on average, by 1st of April. If it is not passed till the close of session, and the levy is not made till 1877, some $28 700 will be added to it by another year's interest. To pay this deficiency by a levy this year will take about a ten mill tax. Justice to the State's creditors, the constitutional requirements, and the interest of the State would all seem to require that the levy to pay these outstanding warrants should be made in 1876, and at once.

Whether the above sum will be increased by deficiency for the years 1875-6 I have no means of knowing.

It will be noticed that nearly one half of this indebtedness $131,000—is on the Insane Asylum fund, and for warrants issued to the contractor thereof, with the interest which will be due upon such warrants on 1st of April next, there will be owing upon Insane Asylum warrants about $170,000. And this is about the proportion of the expense of keeping the insane to the other expenses of the State, under our present system of keeping them, a system not equaled in looseness and extravagance by any other country. I do not hesitate to say that we have three times as many patients in the insane asylum as we have any occasion for having. Many, very many of them are harmless, and would not be there if the county authorities sending them had to pay the bills. Something has got to be done in this matter, or the State has got to go into bankruptcy. We have exhausted all our revenues and run behind over $350,000, nearly half of which is for keeping insane, while a like proportion of our spent revenues has gone in the same direction. The next legislature must give this subject serious attention. An impartial commission should be constituted with authority to dismiss from the asylum from time to time such patients as need not or ought not to be there. As it is, the contractor keeps them or dismisses them at will. He is both contractor and jailor. I do not insinuate that any patient has been kept there longer than necessary, for the profit of keeping him or her. I only say it should not be in the power of any man to so keep them.

And, among the first acts passed by the incoming legislature should be one placing additional guards, or placing guards, (for it can scarcely be said we have any now) upon the sending and keeping of patients in the lunatic asylum. It should also provide that the State should pay the contractor, as now, but that each county should be required to repay to the State all moneys paid for transporting and keeping its insane, and the commissioners of the counties should be required to levy an annual tax for that purpose. Let the State pay the contractor, and the county then refund to the State, with interest. I do not doubt this provision alone would diminish the number of patients in the asylum fully two-thirds and be no detriment to the State, or to such people as are now conveniently called insane, and the counties or relatives thus relieved from caring for them.

The existing contract for keeping the insane will continue for two years longer. This legislature should provide for its extension at lower rates, or make some other provision for keeping them when it expires. If they do neither, the next Assembly will meet at the expiration of the contract, two years from now, and be compelled to renew it upon such terms as the contractor offers. This has been the practice heretofore; I expect it will be hereafter.

It will be seen that among this $287,000 of deficiency is $72,000 for keeping the convicts in the penitentiary. This is nearly one-half of the remaining expense of the State government, after deducting the expense of keeping the insane, and, with interest on it to April 1st, will amount to some $97,000. Of these $287,000 delinquent warrants, $203,000 are for keeping the convicts and the insane, and $84,000 for all the other expenses of the State government.

TRIAL IN U. S. DISTRICT COURT OF MILTON SHEPARDSON, FOR ROBBING THE MAILS.

Sixth Day.

Pursuant to adjournment, court met at 10 o'clock A. M.

T. C. HYDE

Was called: Am an attorney at law; know Geo. W. Day; knew him at Canyon City; did not see him on the stand; know his general reputation; it is bad.

DANIEL KINNEY

Was called: In July and August, 1872, I lived about 20 miles from Maupin's. I am tolerably well acquainted with the country in the vicinity of Antelope Valley and Canyon; have traveled over that country a number of times. At the time spoken of was engaged in driving stock. I am not a blacksmith by occupation, but did my own horseshoeing. [Witness gave a general description of the country in and about Antelope Valley]. In my judgment the soil in that region will not receive and retain the perfect impression of the foot for four or five days after it has been made. The impression might be seen, but could not be readily distinguished after that time. Have had considerable experience in tracking cattle and horses. I shod a horse for Bramlette some four or five days after the robbery.

Cross-examination.—Some portions of the soil at Antelope Canyon are quite stony. Over toward Pine creek the soil is also stony; the soil about Pine creek and in Antelope valley is different; that in the valley is soft in many places, and of a clayey nature; the soil in the vicinity of Maupin's house is not stony; tracks made in that vicinity could be seen for some days, I should think, but not very distinctly; tracks made where the wind blows would not appear as distinct and perfect in outline two, three or four weeks after they were made as when fresh; it would be difficult to track horses or cattle over ground which had been trampled by other stock; there are numerous portions of the country in the vicinity of where the robbery was committed, particularly in the valleys, where there are mounds, and between them the soil is soft and tough; tracks made in such soil would be very plainly marked and very distinct, and if not disturbed would remain perfect as to shape for a week or ten days, or even longer; if the foot of a man or animal was made plain—pressed down deep into the soil in such localities—it would retain the impression for some time; if the soil was dry, of course the print would not be made so distinctly, nor retain its shape perfectly.

AD. EDGAR

Was recalled: I was at Maupin's house in August, 1872; was there with Deputy U. S. Marshal Williams; I saw a cloth mask when I was at Maupin's house that time; was shown the mask; a piece of cloth was also shown us by Mrs. Maupin, it was what is called deming; she said it was of the same piece from which she had given Mrs. Tompkins enough for a kitchen apron; said she had more goods which came off of the same piece of cloth; Williams was shown a piece of cloth which came off the large piece; Williams took the mask and compared the cloth of which it was made with the piece shown him; one was thick, heavy and apparently closely woven, while the other was thin, light and loosely woven; I do not think that they were taken from the same piece of cloth.

Cross-examination—We made an examination of the mask and the piece of cloth shown us, while we were on the road; I do not know where Williams is now; I haven't either the mask or the piece of cloth in my possession; Williams had them; the cloth of which the mask was made appeared to have been worn considerably; It was after the arrest, when Williams and myself were at Maupin's house; Mrs. Maupin asserted at the time that the mask and the other piece shown us were taken from the same piece; the mask, I believe, was used on the other trial.

H. C. PAIGE

was recalled: I know Geo. W. Day personally; have known him since November, 1872; his reputation is bad; knew him while I was at Baker City as agent for Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express. I know Frank Johnson; have known him for six or seven years. I saw him last in the penitentiary; it was last Tuesday evening; I saw him in the reception room of the penitentiary; had a conversation with him then; it was in the presence of Watkinds, Lappeus, Thompson, the warden, Tompkins and several others. We did not carry on our conversation out of the hearing of those present at that time; never made any proposition or suggestion to Johnson at that time, or attempted in any manner to influence his testimony. I told him to tell all the truth when he came on the stand. Watkinds, Lappeus and myself accompanied Johnson and the other four prisoners from the penitentiary to Portland. I was at the penitentiary two days before to see some parties. Johnson came to me and wanted to know if he could come down with me. He had traveled probably 1,500 miles with me and desired to accompany me to Portland. I told him if Watkinds was willing to have him come down with me, I had no objections. I am acquainted with the country about Antelope valley; have had some experience in tracking stock; have camped frequently in that section of the country. It would depend upon the locality and season of the year whether you could track cattle in the vicinity of Antelope valley several days or weeks after the tracks were made.

Cross-examination.—I saw Johnson at the penitentiary; went up to come down with him. I did tell him to tell the truth in this matter; have told him to state the truth twice only. My reason for admonishing him to speak the truth was because I had known him to tell an untruth before when under oath. I did not have any conversation with Johnson alone; the conversation was carried on in an ordinary tone of voice. When we reached this city I took Johnson to my house, gave him a shirt, loaned him a coat and got him shaved. I did so for the purpose of enabling him to present a decent and respectable appearance. He did appear on the stand wearing my clothes. I have taken considerable interest in this case; have in all the highway robberies committed here; have arrested Johnson before; have no particular control over him that I know of. I have talked with Tompkins about the case. The evening I reached the penitentiary I told Watkinds that Johnson and Tompkins had as well know that I had come. I did not ask to see them. Have camped in Antelope Valley in 1863; never attempted to track men there. The tracks of horses or men made about the mounds spoken of, where the ground is soft and yielding, would retain the prints distinctly for some time if not disturbed—probably for several weeks.

MRS. M. J. TOMPKINS

Was called, and testified, substantially: I reside in Portland; have resided here since December, 1872; I am the wife of Frank M. Tompkins; we lived on Muddy creek, in Wasco county, in 1872; I know Howard Maupin, have known him since 1865; we have resided in Wasco county since 1863; I think they call it 21 or 22 miles from where we lived in 1872 to Maupin's; our house was 3 or 4 miles from the Canyon City road; I know Hanson, White and Bramlette; they were at our house about the 12th of July, 1872; I have heard of the circumstances of the stage robbery; I was at home on the 12th of July; Hanson, White and Bramlette were there on that day; I was engaged in washing that day, and Mr. Tompkins, my husband, was about the house helping me; Hanson started on the morning of the 12th to go to the woods and get some timber; White went up the creek to cut some stocks to brand cattle; Bramlette was working about the place, making a milk house in the yard. Hanson started for the timber in the forenoon, taking with him either a four or six horse team, I do not remember which now. Hanson and White did not come back to dinner. All four—White, Bramlette, Hanson and my husband—were at supper. We had supper that evening about sundown. Hanson did not return until about 6 o'clock in the evening; White about the same time. That evening the men staid about the house, passing the time in milking and smoking. We went to bed about 8 o'clock, as we generally rose early. It was about six miles, I think, from our house to where Hanson went to get the timber. Mr. Tompkins slept with me that night; Hanson and White slept in a wagon box in the shed and Bramlette on a mat. The next day—Aug. 13—Bramlette went away on horseback about 25 miles. Hanson went for more timber and White, I believe, was engaged in digging post holes, my husband went out hunting; he killed a deer and returned about noon that day, on Sunday morning my husband and Mr. Cusick started after some cattle; they went on horseback; Hanson was arrested Friday evening, just one week after the stage robbery; he was sitting on the door step, when Maupin, Cantrell, Attleberry and Quinn rode up to the front gate; Maupin called to Hanson and told him to [illegible] was arrested; the men were armed; Attleberry leveled a gun at Hanson when he was arrested; on the day the arrest was made, Hanson had been engaged in mending harness; he also mended a shoe by tacking a piece of leather on the sole; do not know whether he mended more than one shoe or not; after Hanson was arrested, two of the men mounted their horses and rode up the creek to arrest White; they soon came back with him; stopped at the house long enough for him to change his clothes, and went away. I did not know at that time that my husband was arrested. Maupin was in our house at the time of the arrest of Hanson, probably three-quarters of an hour. He came in and sat down and was talking with me. Mrs. Maupin gave me a piece of cloth with which to make a kitchen apron. This was about thirteen months before the robbery occurred. I made an apron of the piece furnished me at Mrs. Maupin's, and took it home with me and wore it out. When it was worn out I cut the apron into two pieces and made rags of them to wash and wipe dishes, pots, etc. I left the rags at my house when I came away.

Court took a recess until 1 o'clock.

Afternoon.

Mrs. Tompkins again took the witness stand, and after some correction of her testimony as given this forenoon, by stating that Hanson went in an opposite direction to that which she had before stated, and was cross-examined by counsel for defendant, she said: I am the wife of Frank Tompkins, one of the parties convicted of this charge; was present a portion of the time at the other trial; have taken a good deal of interest in this matter; have conversed with counsel about it, before the trial, and since this began; asked Mr. Moreland to attend to it.

Counsel for defendant stated that they would not cross-examine this witness on the main facts.

WARD S. STEVENS

Testified that he is, and has been, deputy U. S. marshal, under Mr. Waters, since April 17th; had a conversation with Mr. Thompson, of counsel for defendant; spoke to Mr. Thompson, notifying him that a dispatch had been received from Austin, Nevada, stating that Mrs. Morrison was probably a resident there; thinks this conversation with Thompson was about a week before this trial began.

Cross-examined—Mr. Thompson came to the marshal's office to see about other witnesses for the defendant; don't recollect that the conclusion was arrived at that she was too far away to get here in time for the trial; we talked about that matter, but Mr. Thompson went away, and witness thought he was going to see what he would do about it; told Mr. Thompson that information had been received that she (Mrs. Morrison) was in Austin, Nevada; don't know in what part of Nevada Austin is, but, if it is in Nevada, it could not be within 100 miles of Portland.

N. E. HANSON

Was called and sworn: I am stopping at present in the Oregon State penitentiary; think I have been there four years the 9th of next November; in July, 1872, I resided at Tompkins' ranch in Wasco county, Oregon. I had been living there from about the fore part of June of that year; on the 12th day of July I was, as near as I can recollect, either at work putting up a building at Mr. Tompkins', or on the road going for a load of timber; on the night of the 12th of July I staid all night at Tompkins' place; staid there every night in July until the 16th or 18th, when I was arrested; I kept no account of the days of the month; on the day the stage was said to have been robbed, I went after a load of timber some seven miles southwest of Tompkins' place; I left Tompkins' early in the morning, about 6 o'clock, and returned near sundown; took a lunch with me, but can't recollect just where I ate it; took supper at Tompkins'; Mrs. Tompkins and Tompkins were at the table with me; White and Bramlette were about the house; I took supper about sundown, or as soon as I could unharness my team; the horses run in the same field where I drove up, and as soon as I could strip the harness off I went in to supper; after supper we chatted awhile and then went to bed; I slept in a wagon bed; White slept with me; I don't know whether White went to bed before me or not; I was not asleep when I went to bed; the next morning I got up my team and harnessed them, got my breakfast and started back to the mountains after another load of lumber; Mr. Cusicks and his family came to Mr. Tompkins' house that day; they were there when I returned that day; I was arrested on the Friday following the day when the stage is said to have been robbed, by one Maupin and three other men; on the day I was arrested I was mending my harness; I had broken it the day before and was mending it and had laid over; at the time of the arrest Maupin asked me, pointing at one of the shoes on my feet, what number of shoes I wore, and I told him number 7; he took my foot up and looked at my shoe, and said, "its no use talking, them tacks in the toe are the same that we found in the tracks on the robbers trail; I told him if he referred to the round headed tacks that I had driven them into the shoe that day, only an hour or so before, he again took up the foot and looked at it, and said nothing more about it at that time. The nails were driven that day between one and three o'clock; after my arrest I went to Antelope Valley with Maupin and three other men; White was with us. As we were going to Maupin's house after the arrest Maupin said to me in substance, You will go up sure this time, it is hanging, and if that s— of a b— Tompkins had his deserts he would be hung; that his bunch grass hills would do him no more good; they might do his widow some good but they would never do him any more good.

Cross-examined.—I was arrested at Tompkin's house, Maupin and three other men, Attleberry, Quinn and Cantrell were there; staid at Tompkin's every night in July, till I was arrested; after the arrest I staid on the road and in prison; I took the shoe off my foot myself, and set it down on the floor; went to change my clothes; Maupin took up the shoe and said he guessed he would take it along; I told him all right, he could have both of them if he liked; I did not see it any more to handle it, until this present time; I never had it on any more.

J. W. WHITE

Sworn: I am residing at the Oregon State penitentiary: will be four years on the 9th of November since I was taken there; was taken there from Portland; before that I resided on Frank Tompkins' ranch, on Muddy, Wasco county, Oregon; I know, from what I heard, when the stage was robbed in Antelope canyon; I first heard of it five or six days after it occurred; was at Currant creek stage station when I first heard of it; on the day of the robbery I was cutting cottonwood, or balm poles, to build a coral with, about a mile and a half or two miles from Tompkins' house; I returned to Tompkins' house about sundown, or maybe the sun was half an hour high, maybe not so much; Bramlette, Hanson, Tompkins, Mrs. Tompkins and the children were there; I had my supper that night at Tompkins'; after supper we went out in front of the house, and some of us were smoking; I milked the cows after supper, I think; that was part of the chores I had to do, but can't say certain whether I milked before or after supper; I slept at Tompkins' house that night in a wagon bed with Hanson. Bramlette slept there in front of the house in the yard in his blankets; some call it 21 miles, some 22, and I have heard it called 25 miles from Tompkins' ranch to Antelope canyon; I was at Tompkins' ranch till the following Friday, when I was arrested; had a conversation with Maupin as we were going from Tompkins' after the arrest to Maupin's house; he said in substance to me, "I am sorry for Hanson, but as for the d—d son of a b—h Tompkins, he ought to be hung, and if I had my way he would be hung, he ain't fit to live, but his time is short."

Cross-examined—I was at Tompkins' house on the day of the robbery, or on the morning and evening of that day. I was cutting poles that day; on the day before the robbery I think I was digging post holes; I don't recollect Maupin saying at the time, when he said he was sorry for Hanson, etc., that he said Tompkins is above the law, for his crowd always swear him clear, as they did when he murdered poor Jack Mount, but he said something to that effect afterward when we got near his house.

FRANK TOMPKINS.

My name is Frank N. Tompkins, am living in the Oregon State penitentiary, have been there since the 9th of November, 1872, before that I lived in Wasco county, Eastern Oregon, about 100 miles southeast of The Dalles, and 23 miles from Antelope Canyon; had lived in Wasco county since 1861; first heard of the stage robbery on the Sunday or Monday following, near Henry Coleman's ranch, was at my ranch on the day of the robbery; after breakfast that day I took White to the cottonwood grove and showed him where to cut poles, then went back and worked on my [illegible] all day; Bramlette was working with me, saw Hanson in the morning; he went about eight miles after a load of timber; he came back about sundown; he returned on his saddle mare driving his team, he had a six horse team; White returned with him; don't recollect what my wife was doing that day, she was doing the general housework; I took supper that night at home, there were there then, Hanson, White, Bramlette, myself, wife and children. On Saturday, Cusicks and his family came to my house, I went with Cusicks to hunt some cattle. [Witness was here asked to show his hands to the jury and did so].

Cross examined—I was arrested at Grater's on Clark's creek, twelve or fourteen miles from my house; Quinn, Attleberry, Sam Porter, Howard Maupin, Mr. Hale, W. C. Cusicks, James Grater, and perhaps others; on the 12th of July I was at my house all day except when I went up with White to the grove; White did not go with Hanson that day; Bramlette was sawing down the corners of the milk house that day; we were working together, I am certain of it.

Question—At the time of your arrest at Grater's, in the presence of Sam Porter and others, did you not say, "What is this for?" and Maupin reply, "You know what its for, Frank," and said, "Have you got Hanson and White?" or words to that effect. A.—I never said any such thing.

N. E. HANSON

Re-called, said: "I heard Sutton's testimony; I had a small five-shooter, it had had a bone handle, part of the handle was broken off, the handle was not white, but of a bright straw color; it was brass mounted and my name was cut on the brass; I let Bramlette have my canteens in the fore part of June when he was going up the country; he asked me to let him have my canteens; I did not think of the pistol and he took it off with him, and that is the last I saw of it.

Cross-examined—That pistol was a bone handled pistol; I think it had been white when it was new; the large part of the handle was chipped off on the right hand side; had my name on the brass; the pistol was not more than six inches long.

[The witness (White) was here directed by counsel to show his hands to the jury, which he did.]

WM. H. BRAMLETTE

Was sworn, and testified: I am now stopping at the Oregon State penitentiary; have been there three years last November; last before that I resided in Wasco county, Oregon; I was at Tompkins' place about the 12th of July, 1872; heard of the stage robbery on the Sunday after it occurred; was at Colman's ranch when I first heard of it; on the day of the robbery I was at Tompkins' ranch working on a milk-house; begun early and worked all day; Tompkins assisted me; Hanson and White were there in the morning and also in the evening; they came late in the evening, near sundown; I stayed there that night; slept in the yard in front of the house; got up early next morning and started to go to Colman's ranch; went down on Clark's creek and stopped with a young man by the name of Cox; next day, Sunday, went to Colman's ranch; got there about 11 o'clock in the forenoon; stayed there till Thursday; I was arrested at 5 o'clock Thursday evening by Maupin, Cantrell and Attleberry; I was branding cattle there. [Witness requested to show his hands to the jury and does so.]

Cross-examined—My hands are badly freckled; were about the same then as now; I am in the habit of working out doors now. I have seen Mr. Charles Adams; saw him at Maupin's the day after my arrest; I do not recollect of saying to him "this is the first scrape I have got into and it shall be the last." I saw Mr. Durbin at the other trial and he has been at the penitentiary a time or two since I was sent there.

Question—Did you not have a conversation with him in Mr. Maupin's house a few days after your arrest in which he said: "You appear to be a young man and I am an old man and consider myself capable of giving young folks some good advice; my advice is for you to tell the truth, for the truth will always bear you safe through," and did you not tell him that you and Frank Tompkins and Hanson did the robbing and White held the horses? Ans.—I don't recollect any such talk with him; I have said I don't recollect any conversation at all with him.

Question—Did he not ask you why you robbed the mail and not the passengers, and did you not say your orders were to rob the mail only, and not to trouble the passengers, and did he not ask you who gave these orders, and did you not tell him that Tompkins gave them? Ans.—Don't recollect any such conversation, I said I never recollected of seeing the man until the other trial; I don't recollect of having a conversation with Durbin or Adams at Maupin's house on the day after the arrest or the succeeding day; at the time I was at Maupin's house I had a lame knee; Mr. Adams paid some attention to it, I don't recollect that any one else did; Adams did not go out of the room, leaving Durbin with me; don't recollect of seeing Durbin till I saw him in court.

Re-direct Examination—I was put into the room at Maupin's on Thursday and stayed there till Saturday; think Adams came there on Saturday; the room, I think, was not opened till after Adams came; I know Mr. Schulz, sheriff of Wasco county; Schutz came to Maupin's on Saturday morning; asked him to open the door; he said that he understood I had made a confession, and I told him how it was.

EMIL SCHUTZ.

Was called and being sworn, testified: I was sheriff of Wasco county and deputy U. S. marshal in 1872; I had deputized Maupin to arrest Bramlette if he, Bramlette, attempted to leave the country; I saw a mask said to have been found by those in pursuit of the mail robbers; it was of blue drilling; don't know just when I saw it; I know I had it in my hands and examined it; I think they came to Portland, don't believe I saw them at Maupin's house; believe I saw them in the hands of Mr. Williams; a pistol, said to have been found, was handed to me and turned over to the U. S. marshal, Mr. Young.

Cross examined.—I think I would know the pistol now. [Pistol shown to witness, who examines it.] This is the same pistol.

Counsel for defendant here asks permission of the court to call Mr. Schutz on their main case, and leave being granted he was examined in chief by defendant's counsel, and testified: I arrived in Antelope Canyon Monday morning after the robbery, having called to my assistance John Attleberry, Mr. Maupin, Cantrell and Jos. Cunningham, and went up a wagon road known as Maupin's wood road, where I had been informed tracks had been seen, and found some tracks; this road leads northerly from Maupin's house, and nearly parallel with the Canyon City road and up the next canyon to it; found the tracks of four horses going easterly, 2 to 2½ miles from the scene of the robbery; followed these tracks till they led into the Canyon City road about a mile and a quarter east of Maupin's house toward Canyon City; I was not present at the arrest of these parties, but served the warrants; knew where Tompkins lived; was there soon after the robbery with Humason, Maupin and I believe one of Maupin's sons; there were some horses in the field and I had a little horse brought out that Mr. Hinkle was riding the day before; had him led in front of me, that I might see his tracks; the right shoe was broken; I had the left shoe taken off; I compared this shoe with the tracks I had seen while tracking the robbers before we got to the Canyon City road. [A horse shoe shown to witness.] To the best of my opinion this is the same shoe. I compared the shoe by holding it over and as near the track as I could without disturbing the track, and I concluded it was made with that shoe. The track with which I compared the shoe was one of the four which I found on the ridge. The direction of the tracks which we followed was leading rather towards Tompkins' house.

Cross examined—I took the shoe and kept it in my possession until I brought it into court. If my memory serves me right, I testified about the shoe in the Tompkins trial. There was nothing about the shape of the shoe that would enable me to distinguish a track made by it from other tracks made by shoes of the same size; the horse from which this shoe was taken was a small size, common Indian pony; there are more ponies like in size in that country; I don't believe I could now tell the tracks made by this shoe from others of the same size, but I believe I could then. The soil where this track was made is a dry red soil; there was some water near there, but not near enough to affect the soil. To the best of my recollection, the half of the right shoe on the horse I spoke of was broken off and gone.

Re-direct examination—I made the examination about two weeks after the robbery; there are mounds in that country covered with bunch grass and naked soil between them; this track was right in the soil; in some places you have to travel a half mile on a trail before you find a good impression of the track. We looked up at we found a good impression.

[illegible] CASE OF THE U. S. [illegible]

[illegible] sel to show his hands to the jury and did so, after which the counsel for the U. S. rested their case.

DEFENDANT'S REBUTTAL.

Samuel Porter was was called by defendant's counsel and testified: I reside in Linn county at present. In 1872 I lived in Antelope valley, Wasco county. I know Frank Tompkins, Howard Maupin and Wm. Cantrell; know when Mr. Grater lived in Wasco county; I was at Grater's when Frank Tompkins was arrested on this charge, Maupin, Quinn, Cantrell, Attleberry and others were present; heard a conversation between Maupin and Tompkins at the time of the arrest; I heard Tompkins ask Maupin "What's this for?" Maupin said: "You know what it's for, Frank," and Tompkins replied, "Have you got Hanson and White?" or words to that effect.

Cross-examination.—These were the first words I heard; don't recollect that Tompkins said "I'll bet a hundred head of cattle that any man that says I robbed the stage is a liar; I can prove my innocence by Hanson and White." Cusicks and Grater were there at the time.

JOHN DURBIN

Was again called and said: I know Bramlette, saw him at Maupin's, in Antelope, in 1872, a few day's after the robbery; the same day of his arrest, or the next day, there was no one but him and me in the room at the time, there were two women about the house, I had a conversation with him; I said to him, "You are a young man and I am an old man, and consider myself capable of giving young folks some good advice, and you had better tell the truth, for the truth will always bear you safe through, and he told me that he and Frank Tompkins and Hanson had done the robbery, while White held the horses; I asked him why they didn't rob the passengers, and he said he had orders not to rob the passengers, but only the mail, that Tompkins gave these orders.

Cross examined—Nobody was present in the room when this statement was made but Bramlette and myself; I was guarding him; I was there when Hanson came; Bramlette came in the afternoon; he was not allowed to go out of the room that day, but don't know whether he went out next morning; I think I first saw Schutz there on Saturday; Hanson came to Maupin's almost midnight; my age is 81 years next 2d of September; I don't hear as well as I once did, but see about as well as ever, I don't use glasses to read only of nights; I have no interest at all in this case; I have no recollection of saying to Cusick "You are young and I am old;" you ought not to testify in favor of Tompkins positively, but should answer questions that may be asked you by saying "you don't remember that the people were all against Tompkins," that "you ought not to contradict what the other witnesses swear Tompkins said at the time of his arrest," or words to the same effect; my memory probably is as good in regard to these things as the other matters of which I have testified.

WM. CANTRELL

Was recalled and testified: I know where Grater lived in Wasco county; was present when Tompkins was arrested. He said at the time of arrest, to Maupin, "What's this for?" Maupin said, "You know what its for, Frank; its for robbing the stage." Tompkins replied: "Have you got Hanson and White."

Cross examined—That was not all that was said; don't recollect that Tompkins said, "I'll bet a hundred head of cattle," but he did say afterward that he could prove his innocence by Hanson and White.

Redirect—It was a few minutes after that he said he could prove his innocence by Hanson and White; Tompkins said any man that said he robbed the stage was a liar, but I don't recollect that he said he would bet a hundred head of cattle; he might have said that; this was a few minutes after.

Counsel for defendant here offered to introduce in evidence the affidavit of defendant and order thereon, by the court for a subpena for Mrs. Morrison, a witness for defendant. Counsel for the United States objected, and, after argument by counsel, the objection was overruled by the court. The affidavit and order was considered as read.

Court adjourned until 9 A. M. to-morrow.

Two weddings last week, and one young man doomed to three months' labor in order to prove, to his "dulcina" that he was on the work before she would accept a copartnership for life's toilsome journey. He is now hard at work and we think will "prove faithful."

Our people know how to charge these Centennial time. For instance, the parties owning the only dancing hall in town which they usually rent for from $10 to $15, charge the firemen the sum of $38, because they had made all the arrangements for a ball and were obliged to rent the hall.

The Good Templars gave a strawberry festival Saturday night which proved a very enjoyable affair. The young men walked very bravely up to the tables and deposited their fifty cents for strawberries and cream, with his gal or some other fellow's "gypsum blossom," we did not learn the financial result, but suppose by the crowd that they cleared enough to pay their Grand Lodge dues.

Keep the Liver Active.

The above is a sound health maxim. In order that the functions of digestion, evacuation and secretion shall be discharged with that degree of regularity and vigor which is essential to the well being of both body and mind, the liver, upon whose activity they are dependent for their due performance, must be kept in good working order. Calomel and blue pills, besides being hurtful mineral drugs, only partially and temporarily rectify disorders or sluggishness of the great billiary gland. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the contrary, accomplish thoroughly what the above medicines fail in doing, and are besides a safe as well as potent, remedy for disorders of the stomach, bowels and organs of urination, as well as an [illegible] general invigorant. They are, moreover, a sterling antidote to malaria.

European Grain Trade.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

LONDON, June 26.—The Mark Lane Express this evening, in its usual weekly review of the grain trade, says the wheat plant is now mostly looking healthy and promising. There appears to be a reasonable prospect of a moderate if not a fair crop. The acreage is short, owing to bad seed, which has rendered it necessary to sow many fields originally intended for wheat with beans or barley. It appears probable that the season of 1876 will be one of moderate crops of fair quality, gathered at a somewhat later period than ordinarily. The wheat trade, sustained as it has been for some time by Continental demand, and the possibility of political difficulties, has entered upon a phase of quiet owing to the cessation of foreign requirements and the diminished attention Eastern affairs have commanded. At the same time supplies are being rapidly pushed forward, and with the anticipated enormous California crop in the background, little probability exists of prices advancing. A drooping tendency became apparent at the beginning of the week, and the fine weather, which has been pretty general throughout, has checked the firmness which was upheld by consumptive demand. The off coast grain trade has ruled quiet, but a rather better demand has been apparent for cargoes of wheat at a decline of about 2s per quarter on last week's prices. No improvement has taken place for forward shipments, as the supply of the coast is more than sufficient to meet present requirements, and the fine weather further tends to render [illegible]. Maize and barley are not features.

THE SEA-SIDE HOUSE,

CLATSOP BEACH,

IS NOW OPEN FOR THE RECEPTION OF VISITORS.

J. C. OLMSTED.

BAY VIEW HOUSE,

BAKER'S BAY, UNITY, W. T.

MR. DEXTER INFORMS THE PUBLIC that his House is now open for the reception of guests. Its advantages in every respect over any other Summer Resort are too well known to Oregonians to repeat here. Testimony I will say that the place is in plain sight and across the Bay from Astoria, on the sheltered side of Cape Hancock, and very near and adjacent to the Fort and Lighthouse, on Baker's Bay, a beautiful sheet of water, unequaled for Sailing, Rowing, Fishing and Bathing. The dark forest, with its picturesque drives, its mountain springs, profusion of wild berries, wild flowers and ferns, the horse trail to the Cape for Equestrians or walkers is one of the most delightful Panoramas to the eye ever witnessed. The cosy beaches, its caves, luxuriantly wooded Island, its views of Astoria, Chinook, Fort Stevens, moist old Tillamook, in the blue distance.

The courteous hospitality of the officers of the Garrison at the Fort, and also of Mr. Munson and family, of the Lighthouse, make that place well worthy of a visit.

The Salt Water Bathing in the bay within a few feet of the hotel, exceeds anything far or near, for warmth of the water and mildness of its waves, far preferable to the heavy surf and cold winds for women, children and invalids, while the sturdy swimmer or those who love the foaming surf, in a few minutes walk will find a beach unsurpassed in beauty, hard and level for one continuous drive of thirty miles. At this end are huge rocks stretching out into the ocean, from which fishers take from the sea, Bass, Rockfish, Tom Cod, Porgies, etc., etc. Crabs, Clams, Oysters, &c., in abundance, (and the Table will never lack a sufficiency of those desirable adjuncts.) Boats upon the Bay, Saddle Ponies for the children, Teams to the Weather Beach, Croquet, Swings, Quoits, etc., FREE to Guests.

To those who would like to camp out, wood and water and use of ground free. Groceries, provisions, milk, eggs, butter, etc., for sale at a small profit. Campers can board at the Hotel if they prefer, at fair rates. A large Livery Stable, two new and fine Ten Pin Alleys, attached to the place.

Stage Office to Oysterville, Postoffice, Wells, Fargo & Co's office also there. No raw winds or damp fogs, and more beautiful tracks and shady groves cannot be found. The only fault the Landlord has, is that his house is not larger; but his grounds are large enough and beautiful enough to warrant next season a Hotel worthy of the surroundings.
